Consequently from these reports it is evident that Christians are looking for a fresh approach to their spirituality, in particular through the process of spiritual formation and its corresponding disciplines. This is the call of Barbara L. Peacock Ministries as we seek to be a conduit that is committed to spiritual maturation and soul care. According to the above stats and information there is a critical need in the body of Christ and we exist to feed that hunger. The above information supports the criticality of Prayer, Soul Care, Spiritual Direction, Classes and retreats. These results support the need for more online classes, spiritual direction and smaller retreat and prayer gathering. This is the focus of BLP Ministries.

To that end, Barbara L. Peacock Ministries bases its methodology and programming on the following four pillars:

The following unique features allow us tangibly to implement our spiritual formation and development:

- We are a Christo-centered ministry that is committed to creating safe spaces for encounters with God. Our missional focus is to equip, empower and educate persons that are seeking to mature on their spiritual journey.
- As a ministry our focus is to provide persons with a spiritual formation curriculum that is designed to draw them closer to God as they pursue Him individually and corporately.
- We promote a loving spiritually developing environment of continual learning which fuels spiritual growth...(with a year-round calendar).
- We engage in our community locally and globally to pursue unity through the various disciplines of spiritual formation, inclusive of prayer, spiritual direction, soul care, etc.

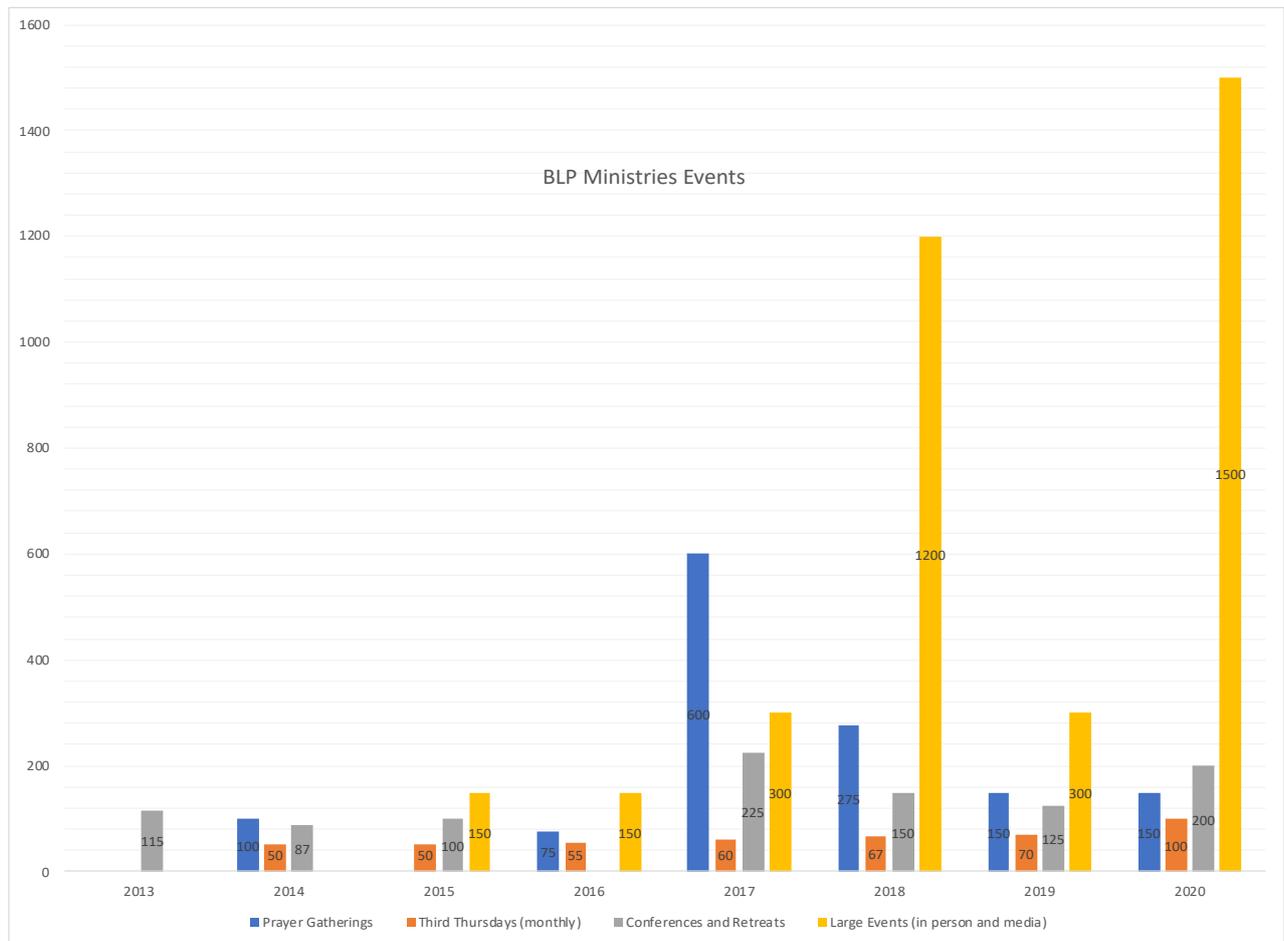

Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth (Psalm 46:10, NIV).

TESTIMONIALS

Soul Care In African American Practice Class (Lab)

I knew from the minute I heard about your Soul Care for African American Practice that the Holy Spirit was encouraging me to take this class. I was blessed being in the presence of such women of faith and Soul sisters of Christ. My heart and mind were expanded and challenged during my reading, journaling, reflection and prayer. Soul Care was perfectly timed in my life for such a time as this.

The Soul Care in African American Practice class was an inspiration and a breath of fresh air in my life...a hurried life that craved the practicality and beauty of soul care in so many ways. Together, we learned God's call on our life to rest, abide, and be refreshed in Him. The sweet community we formed was a blessing, the teaching was invaluable, and the goals and practices I now have in place will make me healthier and stronger for ministry leadership. Are you weary? Burned out? Fearful? This class will be a lifeline for you. Come ready to be blessed, changed, and deeply cared for!

Spiritual Direction (Soul Care) Sessions

Through her service, Dr. Peacock helps me to notice and accept the gracious invitations presented by my heavenly Father...invitations to stillness and action. Sharing this sacred space (with my director) has given peace in uncertain times and courage to act on what God reveals during those times. She is a precious gift from God – a sweet gift that refreshes my soul. The “hospitality” that Dr. Peacock consistently provides when I pause monthly for that much needed time of refreshing, has been transformational. Even more, intimacy with God and awareness of His unfailing love has increased. To sum it up in a few words, for me, spiritual direction has been a life giving, invaluable expression of God's love.

Taura Glaze

Family Advocate at Martin Luther King Jr. Middle School Charlotte, NC

When I reflect on the seriousness and guidance I received during spiritual direction, I have been able to become intentional in making decisions that keep me aligned with my God-given purpose and pursuit. More so, I enjoy the intentionality of slowing down, learning how to BE rather than DOING in order to grow in my personal relationship with Christ. This has been most rewarding and the spiritual direction has been transformational at the point in my journey of life. So much so, I have decided to follow the path and guidance of the Holy Spirit to become a spiritual director.
